OUR RECOMMENDATIONS

Eat

CREO-RU TAKOYAKI

Octopus filled pancake balls are a must, after all Osaka is where they were born.

MIZUNO

Okonomiyaki located in Osaka's Dotonbori Street food, savory veggie filled pancake, yum.

GRAM

Fluffy jiggly pancakes that are stacked a mile high, kids will love it.

ICHIRAN RAMEN

The broth alone in this ramen will change your world, unforgettable.

Stay

BON APARTMENT

This cute airbnb is set in a quiet neighborhood about a block from the subway and includes breakfast at a hipster cafe, we enjoyed this place.

PG KUROMON

Dreamy looking airbnb close to subway, park and lots of beds, a true find in Japan!

See

DOTONBORI

Osaka rightfully named "Japan's kitchen" means you must sample the food. Dotonbori is the easiest way to walk and eat, sampling the best Japan has to offer in Street food.

OSAKA CASTLE

The castle in Osaka is not to be missed. You can easily spend hours here walking the grounds and taking thousands of pictures, especially during cherry blossom season

Play

UNIVERSAL STUDIOS

Recommending this because its such a well done park. Things to keep in mind, you will wait in line-go on weekdays/nonholidays and be amazed at the details and rides.

NARA

One of my favorite spots, just a quick train ride from Osaka. Feed the free-roaming deer in a gorgeous park setting.. A welcomed break from the city.
